

European dimensions of lesser-known wood species

The overall objective is to enhance knowledge of the EU role in the forestry and wood sector and the inter-linkages between players and discuss the EU Forestry Strategy. The EU plays an essential role in supporting EU countries to coordinate their approaches and tackle the problems faced by forests, such as climate change. Understanding the contexts with exchanging experiences can also help proper response to present-day global and daily challenges.

Registration <https://forms.office.com/r/8fkkAutByc>

26 November 2021 at 10:00

This event has been funded with support from the European Union.
2020-1-CZ01-KA203-078483.

south moravian region

EUROPE DIRECT
Brno

● MENDELU
● Faculty of Forestry
● and Wood
● Technology

Speakers

Veronika VRECIKOVÁ Member of the European Parliament

Raphael LELOUVIER European Commission
Directorate-General for Environment

Michal WIEZIK Member of the European Parliament

Michaela JEDLIČKOVÁ Permanent Representation of the CZ to the EU

Libor JANKOVSKÝ Mendel University in Brno

Online via Zoom

English - Czech translation provided

Further information <https://wood.ldf.mendelu.cz/> &
<https://asforclik.ldf.mendelu.cz/>

The event is jointly organised by the Wood+ project, Representation of South Moravian Region to the EU, EUROPE DIRECT Brno. It is supported by the ASFORCLIC project.

ASFORCLIC has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement N°952314.

This event has been funded with support from the European Union.
2020-1-CZ01-KA203-078483.

south moravian region

EUROPE DIRECT
Brno

● MENDELU
● Faculty of Forestry
and Wood
● Technology